April 3

“Early Arizona Aviation” William Kalt, author of High in Desert Skies will highlight accounts of the people, events, airplanes and airports that played a role in developing Arizona's aviation history. The flying archives contain stories of air shows, military necessity, round-the-world flights and a Charles Lindbergh historic visit.

April 10

“The Desert Comes to Life – Part II” Doris Evans, retired nature instructor and lecturer will return to the Forum and present a sequel to the presentation she did this past September. The very popular program highlights her mini-camera's “Candid Camera” video clips of many of Arizona's backyard critters going about their daily activities.

April 17

“The Muddle East – How did this start?” Dr. Stephen Stillwell, Jr. semi-retired librarian and historian, who has spent much of his academic career studying the history and issues of the Middle East will try to explain how this confusing, complex and obscure region of the world came to be, by taking us through the history of the area focusing on the years between 1850 and 1950.

April 24

“Why does my dog do that?” Kim Silver, Certified Professional Dog Trainer and owner of Building Bonds will outline ways to problem solve the most pestering of offenses by your pet dog. By implementing some easy training techniques, you can begin to modify your dog's behavior and improve your relationship with your dog.
