12/16/2020 What's Really Happening at the Southern Border?

Do you wonder whether the US has a humanitarian crisis, a politically-charged disaster, or a national emergency at our southern border? Would you like to understand more about what's currently happening there? Join us for a fact-based presentation about the US-Mexican border, asylum-seekers, and some of the recent changes the US government has made to the immigration laws that affect north-bound migrants. Alyson Ball is a resident of Charlottesville, Virginia and spend her winters in Green Valley, Arizona. Having studied the broader topic of US immigration, Alyson gives a non-political, educational presentation, "US Immigration – The Basics," to audiences throughout the country.
