2/2/2022 Political Cartoonist – David Fitzsimmons

It's the first Wednesday in February which means that David Fitzsimmons returns to our Forum Club. Fitzsimmons will talk about political events and people in our country and display some of his best cartoons. If you cannot enjoy his liberal perspective, perhaps you should sleep in today!

2.9/2022 The Border Alliance–

Border Community Alliance (BCA) offers access to the heritage and potential of the borderlands through cultural exchange and social advocacy. This work is accomplished in partnership with FESAC (Fundación del Empresariado Sonorense, A.C.), a Sonoran community foundation. We aim to provide a community service of public benefit by connecting people and cultures across borders in the cultivation of awareness and a positive sense of international community.

2.16/2022 Ten Typical PI Cases – Jane Noah

Jane Noah's first 20-year career was as a reporter for The Denver Post and her second long career was as a legal investigator, working primarily with trial lawyers. She has also been a college journalism instructor and one of the editors of a trade journal called P I Magazine. Her FORUM topic this year is "Ten Typical Cases for PIs," which will include business fraud, an attempted murder case, a missing person, and a dating investigation.

2/23/2022 Valley Fever Center for Excellence– Dr Fariba Donovan

At the University of Arizona's Valley Fever Center for Excellence (VFCE), Dr. Donovan continues to advocate that earlier diagnosis of coccidioidomycosis (Valley Fever) can reduce both unnecessary tests and treatments, thereby reducing morbidity and mortality.
