

GVR ARTS AND CRAFTS ASSOCIATION GENERAL MEETING MINUTES

April 3, 2019

The meeting was opened at the Desert Hills Center at 1:30pm with President Rebe Philip presiding. Board members Vice President Janis Slaughter, Treasurer Lupe Roybal and Secretary Constance O'Brien were present.

Thirty-four members are present with one new member, Michael _____ and eight guests: Claire Russo of New Hampshire, Carol Tade of Iowa, Laura Bogarsay of New York, Brenda Russell of California, Mari Nelson of Rhode Island, Rita Krchnabi of North Dakota, Cynthia Fletcher of Indiana and Miss Peyton Zenan who is visiting grandmother Brenda Zenan.

The Vice President resumes the meeting. The Minutes of the March meeting are on the back table if members wished to review them. A motion was passed to accept them.

Treasurer's Report was shown as having a current bank balance of $14, 428.23. A motion to accept was passed.

Peggy Weiss and Janis Slaughter spent time on a housecleaning undertaking of the association's closet here. Three boxes and one bag of fabric pieces to the librarian at Sahuarita High School for a project she has there. Penguins and mittens leftover from the past summer projects were donated to the Continental schools.

The May meeting will be the last meeting before the summer hiatus and the resuming of meetings in September. The Board will provide a meat and cheese tray and members are requested to bring either a dessert or an appetizer. A sign-up sheet is on the back table.

The President resumes the meeting. Iris Sapovits has resigned as Membership Chairman due to travel plans. The President stressed the point of possibly closing the Association due to the lack of volunteers needed for four Boards and three Director positions. If the association folds, the bank balance reverts to GVR. Brenda Zenan volunteers for the Membership Chair position. A brief compilation of duties was given. The Vice President will coordinate with her to keep the membership rolls updated and available to the members.

The Summer Project will begin with the first Wednesday in June and continue through the last Wednesday in September with hours of 1-4pm in the Art Room at Desert Hills Center. Rebe and Donna Cornejo will chair with assistance from Gloria Tucker and Anne Brooks. Felt has been provided and prepared by Rebe, but other supplies are need such as lace and ribbons, etc.

Ginny Buck presented a lovely handcrafted card signed by members to Julie Timmer who is returning to Ohio to be nearer family.

Constance reported that member Susanne Phillips was in a car accident last Saturday. Prayers and thoughts are requested.

President Philip fell last week returning home, compliments of a large pothole in the street. A hospital visit and x-rays completed her diagnosis of no broken bones, but with multiple bruises and wounds.

April birthdays of member Anne Brooks, Treasurer Lupe Roybal, and guest Michael _____ were announced.

Door prizes were presented with a sign-up sheet on the back tables requesting these for September and October.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:40pm. Refreshments followed. The make-n-take project "Beading Techniques" by Mary Wilsted was presented at the round tables in the back of the room.

Respectfully submitted,
Secretary Constance O'Brien
