Reports

TREASURER: Donna Cornejo presented report with balance at $9,082.15. Motion to accept by Jaan Troutwine, seconded by Judith MacIntyre.

AVIVA PROJECT: Sandy Miller has been in hospital with pneumonia - gave report.

ARTS AND CRAFTS FESTIVAL Rebe Philip, and Iris Sapovits reported the 2020 Festival was a success. They had 12-14 helpers. A big thank you to all volunteers. Suggestion was made that the vendors include a card with their donation describing the item and where their booth is located. Suggested we use the bigger table number signs next year and maybe have a flag or something to wave showing where the donator's table is.

HOSPITALITY Judith MacIntyre filling in for Linda Stein thanked all those who brought refreshments. We have five volunteers for the April meeting. There is a sign-up sheet for refreshments for May meeting.

MEMBERSHIP Brenda Zenan gave report - we currently have 57 members, we got four new members from Festival. Kathy Booth is a new member at March meeting. It was requested that everyone check to see if they have paid their dues.

PROJECT LINUS: Mindy Zech as Representative for Linus Southern Area reported that they delivered 6,685 blankets in 2019. They also delivered 18 newborn items to hospitals. Blankets go to clinics and foster children. Show Low area and Ft. Huachuca/Sierra Vista have both been participating in this program and have 1000 blankets so far.

NO OLD BUSINESS: Reminder that the May Meeting has a Hat Contest "How does your Garden Grow" is the theme.

There are flyers on the Information Table regarding the summer project and well as flyers about the September "Sip and Chat"

NEW BUSINESS: Birthdays – Mary Ellen Sargent March 18.

Sunshine cards – Gloria Tucker is in hospital. Sandy Miller has had pneumonia; Helen Clarkson has gained better mobility. Kathy Tewksbury is on the mend and in rehabilitation.

Board Meeting will be March 23 at 1:30 at the Desert Hills GVR Center. The Board will be discussing donations for Non-Profit Organizations.

April 1 meeting is Cathy Tewksbury's presentation of St. Andrews Christmas Jewelry project and Barbara Judson's Make 'n Take decorated Easter Boxes.

May 6 is the end of season meeting and Hat Contest with the theme "How Does Your Garden Grow". Meat and cheese tray to be provided by the board.

Motion to adjourn was made by Iris Sapovits and seconded by Sandy Miller at 1:37 pm.

Prize drawings: #1 won by Mindy Zech - donated by Barbara Johnson

#2 won by Karen Peglar - donated by Sandy Miller

#3 won by Mary Ellen Sargent - donated by Ginny Buck.

Respectfully Submitted, Susanne Phillips, Secretary
