ST. ANDREWS MEDICAL CLINIC: Cathy Tewksbery reported that she is still accepting beads and used jewelry for the St. Andrews Medical Bazar, but only the doctors and medical staff will be allowed to visit the children due to Covid restrictions.

SUMMER PROJECT: This year because of Covid-19 restrictions, Rebe Philip, with the help of other members, prepared 650 felt Christmas stockings napkin holders and bundled them into kits of 25, for members to take home and work on over the summer. All the kits have been distributed to the members. Some kits have been returned and the balance are to be returned at the October 6th general meeting.

AVIVA PROJECT: Janis reported that the Aviva Project makes and donates bags (which are then filled with needed items) for children in protective services.
